Dear Vincent Gogolek:

Re: Request for Access to Records
Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FOIPPA)

I am writing further to your request received by the Ministry of International Trade (Asia Pacific Strategy and Multiculturalism). You requested:

All records, communications, emails from public and private systems, phone messages, BBMs, letters, briefing notes, memoranda, meeting agendas, minutes and related material relating to the potential effects of the Trans-Pacific Partnership Agreement on BC's Freedom of Information and Privacy Act, excluding draft (not-final) copies of the aforementioned records.

Please be advised we normally respond to a request within 30 business days after its receipt. However, in limited circumstances, this time limit may be extended under section 10 of FOIPPA, a copy of which is enclosed. A complete copy of FOIPPA is available online at:

http://www.bclaws.ca/EPLibraries/bclaws_new/document/ID/freeside/96165_00

Your request requires consultation with a third party or other public body. An extension of the time limit beyond the due date of September 21, 2015 will allow the Ministry to provide you with a complete response to your request. Therefore, the new response due date is now November 3, 2015. We will respond sooner if possible.

If you request a review, please provide the Commissioner's Office with:

1. A copy of your original request;
2. A copy of our response; and
3. The reasons or grounds upon which you are requesting the review.

Extending the time limit for responding

10 (1) The head of a public body may extend the time for responding to a request for up to 30 days if one or more of the following apply:

- (a) the applicant does not give enough detail to enable the public body to identify a requested record;
- (b) a large number of records are requested or must be searched and meeting the time limit would unreasonably interfere with the operations of the public body;
- (c) more time is needed to consult with a third party or other public body before the head can decide whether or not to give the applicant access to a requested record.
- (d) the applicant has consented, in the prescribed manner, to the extension.

(2) In addition to the authority under subsection (1), with the permission of the commissioner, the head of a public body may extend the time for responding to a request as follows:

- (a) if one or more of the circumstances described in subsection (1) (a) to (d) apply, for a period of longer than the 30 days permitted under that subsection;
- (b) if the commissioner otherwise considers that it is fair and reasonable to do so, as the commissioner considers appropriate.

(3) If the time for responding to a request is extended under this section, the head of the public body must tell the applicant

- (a) the reason for the extension,
- (b) when a response can be expected, and
- (c) in the case of an extension under subsection (1) (a) to (c), that the applicant may complain about the extension under section 42 (2) (b) or 60 (1) (a).
